Romeo and Juliet: Act 1, Scenes 1-4

Video: Romeo and Juliet: Act 1, Scenes 1-4 Summary and Close Reading (Shakespeare) (Edpuzzle Original)

Theme: Love and Conflict

Romantic love can be an overwhelming force that causes _____ when people forget their other values and loyalties.

The Street Brawl

Act 1 opens with a street _____ between servants of the Montagues and Capulets.

Benvolio tries to calm the fight, but _____ is belligerent.

Prince Escalus warns: end this feud or face the penalty of _____.

Romeo's Conflicted Love

"O brawling love, O loving hate." This is _____: two ideas placed side by side to highlight their differences.

Romeo means the feud is driven as much by _____ (love) as by hate.

Romeo is sad because _____ does not return his love. Love that is not returned is _____.

"Love is a smoke made with the fume of sighs." This is a _____: a direct comparison between two ideas.

Romeo's metaphors show love as both _____ and terrible.

Mercutio the Foil

Mercutio's Queen Mab speech says dreams are just _____ from an idle brain.

A _____ is a supporting character whose personality contrasts with another character's.

Mercutio is anti-romantic and _____, which highlights Romeo's romantic, love-struck nature.

Romeo goes to the Capulet party because he knows _____ will be there.

Answer Key

Theme: Love and Conflict

- conflict

The Street Brawl

- brawl
- Tybalt
- death

Romeo's Conflicted Love

- juxtaposition
- family loyalty
- Rosaline, unrequited
- metaphor
- wonderful

Mercutio the Foil

- fantasies
- foil
- cynical
- Rosaline