Romeo and Juliet: Act 2, Scenes 3-6

Video: Romeo and Juliet: Act 2, Scenes 3-6 Summary and Close Reading (Shakespeare) (Edpuzzle Original)

Friar Lawrence

Friar Lawrence is Romeo's trusted _____ and a spiritual advisor to both families.

A _____ is a speech a character gives when alone on stage.

"The earth that's nature's mother is her tomb." The earth is where life both _____ and ends.

_____ means one thing can have two, often opposing, qualities. A flower can cure you or _____ you.

The Friar says people, like plants, hold both _____ and rude will.

Why the Friar Helps

He hopes the marriage will turn the families' _____ (hatred) to pure love.

"Wisely and slow; they stumble that run _____."

Warnings About Passion

"These violent delights have violent ends." Violent delights is an _____.

The Friar compares passion to fire and _____, which burn each other out quickly.

Too much love is like too much _____: it becomes loathsome.

"Therefore love _____; long love doth so."

Romeo says love-devouring death can do what it dares. This is _____: the audience knows something the character does not.

Answer Key

Friar Lawrence

- confidant
- soliloquy
- begins
- Duality, kill
- grace

Why the Friar Helps

- rancor
- fast

Warnings About Passion

- oxymoron
- gunpowder
- honey
- moderately
- dramatic irony