Romeo and Juliet: Act 3

Video: Romeo and Juliet: Act 3 Summary and Close Reading (Shakespeare) (Edpuzzle Original)

Theme: Family Loyalty

Tybalt challenges Romeo to a _____, a formal fight the prince has forbidden.

Romeo refuses to fight because Tybalt is now his _____ through his secret marriage.

The audience knows about the marriage, but Tybalt does not. This is _____.

The Turning Point

_____ fights Tybalt and is killed, crying "A plague o' both your houses!"

Romeo kills Tybalt to _____ Mercutio, then cries, "O, I am _____!"

The prince's punishment: Romeo is _____ from Verona.

This decision is a turning point in the _____ and in Romeo's character.

Juliet's Reaction

"Beautiful tyrant, fiend angelical." Juliet uses _____ to describe Romeo.

Juliet says Romeo's banishment is worse than ten thousand dead _____.

Juliet's greater loyalty is now to her _____ rather than to the Capulets.

More Pressure

Juliet's parents order her to marry _____ in a few days, and even the _____ tells her to obey.

Answer Key

Theme: Family Loyalty

- duel
- relative
- dramatic irony

The Turning Point

- Mercutio
- avenge, fortune's fool
- banished
- plot

Juliet's Reaction

- oxymorons
- Tybalts
- husband

More Pressure

- Paris, Nurse