2.2 The Caddo

4th Grade Social Studies · Video: Chapter 2: The Caddo Tribe (Statewide Outreach Center)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Watch the video and fill in the blanks as you go.

Where the Caddo Lived

Native Americans in the Southeastern Cultural Region adapted to the land by learning how to _____.

The Caddo lived in the _____ region of East Texas, near the Louisiana border.

The land there was _____ and ideal for growing crops.

Tall, slender trees in the forests were perfect for building large huts.

Nearby rivers and forests gave the Caddo easy access to _____ and hunting.

Caddo Villages and Homes

The Caddo were _____, which means they stayed in one place instead of moving around.

Some Caddo villages had as many as _____ people.

The Caddo lived in grass huts that looked like _____.

Each hut had one large round room with a high ceiling.

A hut was large enough for _____ to live together.

Building a Grass House

The Caddo cut tall _____ trees from the forest into poles.

They gathered about 15 to 20 poles for one house.

They dug holes in a _____ and placed one pole into each hole.

Two men climbed to the tops of the poles and tied them together with wet _____ straps.

Farming and Trade

The Caddo sometimes hunted and fished, but they were mainly _____.

They grew crops such as corn, _____, pumpkins, and squash.

_____ was their most important crop.

The Caddo were known for making beautiful _____.

To get things they could not grow or make, they would trade, or _____, with other Texas tribes.

Caddo Government

Each Caddo village had its own _____.

The main leader was called a _____.

A small group of older tribal members helped the chief make decisions.

Vocabulary

| Word | Meaning |
|---|---|
| sedentary | staying in one place instead of moving around |
| fertile | good for growing crops |
| barter | to trade by exchanging goods |
| chief | the main leader of a tribe or village |

Key Takeaways

• The Caddo were farmers who lived in large villages in the Piney Woods of East Texas.

• The Caddo built beehive-shaped grass houses and traded crops and pottery.

• The Caddo Nation still exists today. Its headquarters is in Binger, Oklahoma.