2.4 The Karankawa

4th Grade Social Studies · Video: Chapter 4: The Karankawa Tribe (Statewide Outreach Center)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Watch the video and fill in the blanks as you go.

Life on the Gulf Coast

The _____ was an important food source for the Karankawa people.

The land near the Gulf had animals such as rabbits and _____.

The Karankawa gathered _____ from the beaches to make tools, jewelry, and decorations for their clothing.

Always on the Move

The Karankawa were _____.

Nomads are people who do not have _____ homes and move from place to place.

The Karankawa traveled along the Gulf in _____.

They made these canoes by hollowing out large tree _____.

A canoe was narrow, but long enough to carry an entire _____ and all of their belongings.

Karankawa Homes

At a new location, the Karankawa _____ built the homes.

They bent poles into a frame and covered it with animal skins or woven grass _____.

These homes were called _____.

Hunting, Fishing, and Trade

The Karankawa were highly skilled with _____.

They hunted deer, rabbits, birds, and _____.

They also gathered _____ and clams.

They traded for items they could not hunt or grow themselves.

Leaders and Celebrations

The Karankawa were led by two chiefs: a _____ chief and a war chief.

The civil chief organized the people and kept the _____.

The war chief took control during times of _____ with other tribes.

They celebrated successful hunting and fishing trips by gathering around _____ to chant, sing, and dance.

Vocabulary

Word	Meaning
nomad	a person who has no permanent home and moves from place to place
dugout canoe	a boat made by hollowing out a large tree trunk
wigwam	a home made of a bent pole frame covered with skins or grass mats
civil chief	the leader who organized the people and kept the peace

Key Takeaways

• The Karankawa were nomads who lived along the Gulf Coast and got much of their food from the water.

• They traveled in dugout canoes and lived in wigwams they could move.

• Some people today trace their families back to the Karankawa and work to keep their history alive.